I have to say that countless games limit our actions when we use our energy. It's annoying! And that's not going to happen in this amazing game. It's interesting, isn't it? Come with me. StoryMi success in the first part called RePlocate, Weed Firm 2: Bud Farm Tycoon is a famous simulation and role-playing game. Here, he begins exciting adventures. You play like a botanical student named Ted Growing. He was expelled from school and returned to Alma Mater in season two. It's exciting and scary to just avoid the police while pursuing your business. This time, Ted Growing became clearer as he gradually implemented his plan. He chose the abandoned gym to set up his weed-growing machines. What's more, it's interesting that Ted gets back what's best – the marijuana business. The game transforms the players led to help him expand his economy into bigger places. Besides, you can also study new types of magic mushrooms, new buds to make your business more profitable. When I started playing Weed Firm 2, I honestly felt excited and excited. His heart beats harder when he has to escape the police while the echoes of loyal customers. What you need to do is simply grow healthy weeds, work hard to water them and sell them to potential customers. Do not worry that it will be boring after a short time, because it repeats. I have been playing it for a while and still find this game fascinating. It's very addictive and you can't get rid of it! There will be assigned tasks on the board to perform. Once it's done, your character will level up. The faster you level up, the more clients and characters you will meet. In particular, you can learn and grow several types of marijuana. If you're brave enough, plant them in your first store. Interestingly, customers can not only normal people on Earth, but players can interact with friends on other planets. Grow the magic mushrooms and sell them today. Even if you are familiar with the first part of this game, you still need to start from the beginning of Weed Firm 2. The game will give you an available store. But I can't deny it. It is very shabby and ugly. It's a long-running gym. The floor is broken and the wall is cracked. In order to gain customer trust, you must first have a beautiful shop, right? Your empire can't be buried in an old place. Improvements help customers expect more reliable supplies from you. Believe me, I've tried. Every time I buy an extra store item like sofa or wallpaper, the number of visitors increases. The pot quality also improves, from which marijuana is better and better. Excellent players often rely not only on their skills, but also on the tips that are collected during the game. But you can be sure I won't let you fight. Check out some tips below and make sure you become a bestseller around: If you get bored planting trees, then I'll just console you because this is the first job you need to do. Be careful every time you water the tree to the needle bar of the clock without brushing 0%. After each little watering, hold the situation the same way and wait until it grows. But there is a small tip that can help you quickly harvest weeds here. Try adjusting the time on your device. It's easy to do and helps you miss endless waiting times! Once you log into the game, I guarantee that you will harvest 100% of your weed and perform tasks easily. However, on a small note, you need enough water for the one-time growing process. If there's little water, it's going to be hard to do that. Even if you set your phone clock, the weeds you previously harvested are still intact. Talented businessmen often feel free to spend money to invest in the most complete product development. In Weed Firm 2, players have to do the same. If you have one or two pots, you can only plant a little grass. And the profits are less. But if you feel free to invest money to buy lots of pots, you can grow more weed. You can grow a lot of trees at once. Since then, profits have been higher and higher. It's understandable, isn't it? If a lot of pots grow in your hands, sales will increase. This is an opportunity to connect more with potential customers. In addition to local rude people who often ask for money, police officers are also a huge threat to your business. Just like gangsters, they're just as bad! I was a little scared when I met an employee named Malone. He stopped and threatened to close my entire store. That's impossible. The great empire I'm building can't collapse like this. So, he calmed down and suggested that he make a little deal. Of course, Malone was impressed and didn't press anymore. Ideally, you need to make sure that he will be in normal condition to avoid big trouble later. It's a trick for you if you're still at a low level. But when you reach level 14, the game unlocks for you an interesting method. This method will help you avoid po-po and protect your money from doing. That's what you can buy Sandy panties. As soon as the opportunity to Grab it right away. It's a powerful tool when Asked by Malone. If you have this in your hand, don't give it to him, give him this underwear. He'll leave right away. I know it's weird, but whatever. This interesting situation will be waiting for you when you reach the right level. I have to say, it's desirable. After completing your difficult encounter, this is a reward for you. This huge increase in experience that you will find overwhelming. The prerequisite for completion is a huge amount of money. Money means you have everything, you know? This mission is on the list of some important missions that have a wide range of EXP. Although this method is annoying, for both you and other friends on social networking. But it's one of the stable sources of income in your pocket. Every day there will be 10 times to share the game on personal media sites like Facebook, Twitter, ... in exchange for attractive bonuses. Do some hard work and become the richest seller! Overall, Weed Firm 2: Bud Farm Tycoon is a rather strange game despite its simple and familiar gameplay. Usually, you can only see agricultural toys with normal crops. But here, you experience weed woman! Surprise, man? There is nothing to complain about the graphics or sound of the game because it is quite eye-catching and easy to hear. You know, the nicer the game, the more attractive it is. The plot is simple, but the player can experience a lot of extra spaces. You will join the aliens or learn the tricks to protect the weeds. Passion hard to give up will be convenient to see in this application. The game is worth trying! Trying!
